

Naivelt נבידעלע News

Letter from the Editor

Unsurprisingly, the season has been off to a merry and spirited start. Perhaps it is because of this general cheerfulness that I have received so many excellent submissions. The photograph below of the Pileated Woodpecker that has been spotted on Hills 1 and 2, was taken outside of Marie Drexler's cabin by Gillian Halstead. The photo of those affable folks you see to your right was taken last weekend during the Progressive Feast and was submitted by Shlomit Segal.

This Weekend

To start things off this weekend, Alan and Sarit Cantor will be leading a bagel-making workshop at the Lak Shack on Saturday from 12:00 noon to 3:30 p.m. At 7:00 p.m. join UJPO's choir, Zing! Zing! Zing! The sing-along will start around 7:30 p.m. The repertoire will feature beloved folk and protest songs. Anyone is welcome to participate. After blowing off some steam on Saturday, the second Bagel Brunch on Sunday, hosted by Gord and Christine on Hill 1, will feature David Meslin's "Democracy in Crisis: Is Populism the Problem or the Answer?" For those seeking to energize, there will be Aquafit and pool time at 1:00 p.m. and then a 3:00 p.m. Yoga class with Janice at the Ritz. Also on Sunday, as featured in the last issue, Music Camp with Martin van de Ven will be convening for its first session.

Next Week

Music Camp will continue to run every day until Friday, when participants will perform a concert at 7:00 p.m.. On Saturday there will be Aquafit and pool time at 1:00 p.m., figure drawing on Hill 1 at 3:00 p.m., and a Salsa dancing class with Miko in the Lasowsky at 7:00 p.m. On Sunday, the third Bagel Brunch will be hosted by Mari and Gillian (Cabin 25, Hill 2) and will focus on alternative schools in Toronto. There will be more Aquafit and pool time at 1:00 p.m. and a second Yoga class with Janice at the Ritz at 3:00 p.m. .

Bagel Making with Alan and Sarit

Each summer since 2008, Alan and Sarit Cantor have taught a hands-on bagel-making workshop at Camp. This Saturday, join them as they guide you through the process of inventing a new kind of bagel. The workshop starts at 12:00 noon. During the first hour, we will collaboratively create a recipe, select the ingredients, and mix the dough. At 1:00 p.m., we will break for an hour so the dough can rise, and participants can go swimming. When we resume at 2:00 p.m., participants will hand-roll bagels, boil them, sprinkle them with sesame and poppy seeds, and bake them to golden, chewy, crispy perfection. When we wrap up around 3:30 PM, the fresh bagels will be split among the participants. The workshop happens in the Lak Shack. All ages are welcome. No baking experience is needed.

Zing! Zing! Zing!

Join us at the Lak Shak Saturday at 7:00 p.m. for a rousing all-ages sing-a-long with UJPO's new choir, Zing! Zing! Zing! Led by Rachel Sheinin and Hartley Wynberg of Broken Bagel Scene, the evening promises a rollicking combination of Yiddish, labour, protest, and international songs and even a little dancing. No singing experience necessary.

Pool Time and Aquafit

Beat the heat with a trip to the pool during one of our many booked sessions. You can also participate in an Aquafit class, a full-body, low-impact form of exercise.

Last weekend Tina Blazer and the Camp Committee opened the first Bagel Brunch of the season.

Tina and Lisa sing "The Kinderland Song" (1967-69):

This is the place you'll all agree
Come to Kinderland and you'll see
We have such fun bunks 2, 3 and 4
You will always come back for more.

Chorus: As we march along we sing up to the A and C
To the flagpole to the pool to the playing ground
Kinderland's the best to be found.
Boys and girls on the go,
Baseball, football all sports you know
Arts and crafts, trips galore,
You will always come back for more.

Another picture of the Pileated
Woodpecker, by Gillian Halstead

